

Campus Sorority Woman

REPRESENT YOUR CAMPUS. LEAD WITH PURPOSE.
POWERED BY NATIONAL AMERICAN SORORITY WOMAN

Campus Sorority Woman is a campus-based leadership and service competition designed for collegiate sorority women who want to make an impact, represent their chapter and university, and earn a spot at the National American Sorority Woman competition.

It's more than a title—it's a platform for confidence, connection, and community service.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- 1. Represent Your Campus & Sorority
Showcase your leadership, sisterhood, and values on a national stage.
- 2. Compete for a National Title
Winners receive entry into NASW Nationals and become official 2025 National Delegates.
- 3. Raise Money for a Cause That Matters
Each campus event supports a local or national nonprofit—because leadership and service go hand-in-hand.
- 4. Gain Confidence & Visibility
Campus Sorority Woman provides a powerful outlet to grow your resume, public speaking skills, and personal brand.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- ✓ Held on your campus between October 1 – December 1
- ✓ Compete in areas like Introduction, Interview, and Fun Fashion
- ✓ Fundraise or support a philanthropy as part of your score
- ✓ Winners advance to NASW and receive a crown, sash & finalist status
- ✓ Events are registered with NASW and supported by the national team

WHO CAN HOST?

Participants:

- Collegiate sorority women (any chapter, any council)
- Must be currently enrolled at a U.S. college/university
- Passionate about leadership, community, and sisterhood

Hosts/Campus Reps:

- Any sorority woman can register to host an event
- You'll receive a toolkit, event script, checklist & guidance
- NASW provides crowns, sashes, digital flyers, and support